This Husky beauty suits her name as she is quite the gem that everyone would love. Ruby is a gorgeous middle aged Husky who came to SHRF as an owner surrender due to her previous owner no longer having the time to care for her.

She is good with large and small dogs as well as children, but being a typical Husky is not cat friendly. She is crate and leash trained and knows many commands.

She appears to be a little overweight so could use some exercise. We believe she probably does not need a crate now that she is an adult dog and has had time to mellow out and relax.

Ruby is healthy, Heartworm negative, spayed, up-to-date on vaccines and microchipped. This girl is a complete package; just give her a loving home and she'll do the rest. Fill out an adoption application on our website, www.siberrescue.com, today and make her yours.
